

Name FVERETT

Cats watch out

On the grass

You hear it howl

Over on its back

The desert is hot

Every night howling

Coyote by Everett Jablonski *

Cats watch out

On the grass

You hear it howl

Over in its pack

The desert is hot

Every night howling

*(Everett is actually a pre-K student who dictated his poem to his teacher . She wrote it out in dashes for him to trace the words. Yay for teachers!)
