The Harris Hawk

The harris hawk, a spy in the sky looking for any jackrabbits hopping by.

Down he dives from high in the sky, as he dives lizards scurry by.

As the rabbit hops away the bighorn sheep bay.

The hawk soars away ready for some sleep to end the day.

The next morning when he is awake he lifts his feathers with a shake.

As he warms up in the sun he's ready to go have some fun.
