

The Great Dessert

Everytime you look up at the sky,
You think "Oh My"
There is so much to see
That is such beauty

So many creatures around
Of all different sizes and sounds
What beauty is the sunset
But most of the time, it will make you sweat

So many animals of shapes and sizes
It is fantastic when the sun rises
There is lots to see
From giant bobcats to little honey bees

What sites there are in the dessert
The beauty and fascinating of the world,
And the water, which squirts the spray of mist
So I insist you visit the wonderful world of the dessert
